

GRIM REAPER POLYSTONE INCENSE BURNER IN14

About the product

In some cultures, people burn incense for the dead. No matter why you burn incense, the Grim Reaper Cross Incense Burner has a macabre sense of style. Made from cold cast resin, this hand-painted burner holds a single stick of incense, not included. The base of the burner has a black cross shape. Golden skulls adorn the outside of the cross while a knotwork pattern decorates the interior. At the top of the cross is the bust of the grim reaper. It has its arms crossed with a scythe in its left hand. Add this incense burner to your home or office decor. You can also give it as a gift to a fan of gothic decor or a lover of the grim reaper. | Grim Reaper Cross Incense Burner by Medieval Collectibles
