Tray History

Around a decade ago, RAW reinvented the rolling tray with the Classic RAW rolling Tray. The rolling trays of the 1960's and 70's were thick metal with a smooth coating on top. They were created by old brand like the Italian Club rolling tray (Which was the most famous one of it's time). Nowadays you can find the classic RAW rolling tray at almost every smoke shop and RAWnabees peddle their inferior copies.
